NEWSLETTER

April 12, 2021

Christ's peace be with you, Alleluia!

After another crazy winter weekend, it looks like spring may be back again. Our flower beds certainly look like it!

As has been announced, the church building has been closed again. We will continue to stream our Sunday services on YouTube, you can find our new channel here:

<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UckkzBUIHoFQyrqCg1GmTukw>

We've had a phenomenal team helping with the services throughout the pandemic thus far and we sincerely cannot thank each and every one of you enough! With that in mind, we also recognize that we are all only human, and we do get tired. We are asking that everyone who is interested in helping with our services, please contact Michelle in the office. Even if you have been helping as recently as yesterday or are part of this coming Sundays service, we are wiping the volunteer lists clean! If you are interested in assisting, please let her know the following:

- What you'd like to help with? (readings, intercessions, leading the psalm)
- How frequently would you like to help? (weekly, bi-weekly, monthly)

Each week we will have a limit of 10 people on the team for each service and all of our established health protocols are in place (masks, contact tracing, social distancing, sanitizing, etc.) to keep us all safe!

Reminder:

Pastoral care includes but not limited to the following: shepherding the faithful back to God and to find maturity of faith through the Word of God, spiritual counsel, prayer, confession and absolution, anointing of the sick, and through the sacraments and sacramental preparation (pending COVID-19 restrictions of course which is limited at this time). Thus, if something is troubling you spiritually, in conscience or you find a challenge in your faith life that is when it is a good time to reach out to your priest.

Rev. Billy is still very much available for those in need of pastoral care, he can be contacted using any of the following methods:

Email: brotherbilly@orderofstfrancis.org

Church phone: 780-962-5131

Cell phone: 780-699-6480

Please do not hesitate to reach out.
