You Are My Hiding Place (Pre-Service Hymn)

You are my hiding place - You always fill my heart
With songs of deliverance - Whenever I am afraid - I will trust in You

I will trust in You - Let the weak say "I am strong - In the strength of the Lord"

You are my hiding place - You always fill my heart
With songs of deliverance - Whenever I am afraid - I will trust in You

I will trust in You - Let the weak say "I am strong
In the strength of the Lord, - I will trust in You."

All People That on Earth Do Dwell - CP 349

All people that on earth do dwell, - sing to the Lord with cheerful voice, him serve with mirth, his praise forth tell; - come ye before him and rejoice.

Know that the Lord is God indeed; - without our aid he did us make;
we are his folk, he doth us feed, - and for his sheep he doth us take.

O enter then his gates with praise, - approach with joy his courts unto;
praise, laud, and bless his name always, - for it is seemly so to do.

For why, the Lord our God is good; - his mercy is forever sure;
his truth at all times firmly stood, - and shall from age to age endure.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: Let us pray together the Collect of the Day,

All: God of the prophets, in every age you send the word of truth, familiar yet new. Let us not be counted among those who lack faith, but give us vision to see Christ in our midst and to welcome your saving word. Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

The Proclamation of the Word

First Reading (Doug)

A READING FROM THE SECOND BOOK OF SAMUEL
(2 SAMUEL 5:1-5, 9-10)

Then all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron, and said, "Look, we are your bone and flesh. For some time, while Saul was king over us, it was you who led out Israel and brought it in. The Lord said to you: It is you who shall be shepherd of my people Israel, you who shall be ruler over Israel." So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron; and King David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the Lord, and they anointed David king over Israel. David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years. At Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months; and at Jerusalem he reigned over all Israel and Judah thirty-three years. David occupied the stronghold, and named it the city of David. David built the city all around from the Millo inward. And David became greater and greater, for the Lord, the God of hosts, was with him.

Psalm 48

Great is the Lord, and highly to be praised; *

in the city of our God is his holy hill.

Beautiful and lofty, the joy of all the earth, is the hill of Zion, * the very centre of the world and the city of the great king.

God is in her citadels; *

he is known to be her sure refuge.

Behold, the kings of the earth assembled * and marched forward together.

They looked and were astounded; *

they retreated and fled in terror.

Trembling seized them there; *

they writhed like a woman in childbirth, like ships of the sea when the east wind shatters them.

As we have heard, so have we seen, in the city of the Lord of hosts, in the city of our God; *

God has established her for ever.

We have waited in silence on your loving-kindness, O God, * in the midst of your temple.

Your praise, like your name, O God, reaches to the world's end; *

your right hand is full of justice.

Let Mount Zion be glad and the cities of Judah rejoice, * because of your judgements.

Make the circuit of Zion; walk round about her; *

count the number of her towers.

Consider well her bulwarks; examine her strongholds; *

that you may tell those who come after.

This God is our God for ever and ever; *

he shall be our guide for evermore.

Gracious God, you have made us fellow citizens with the saints in the city of your eternal light. In the time of storm, when the foundations shake, teach us to wait in silence on your steadfast and transforming love, made known to us in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Second Reading (Andrea)

A READING FROM THE SECOND LETTER OF PAUL TO THE CORINTHIANS

(2 CORINTHIANS 12:2-10)

I know a person in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven - whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows. And I know that such a person - whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows was caught up into Paradise and heard things that are not to be told, that no mortal is permitted to repeat. On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except of my weaknesses. But if I wish to boast, I will not be a fool, for I will be speaking the truth. But I refrain from it, so that no one may think better of me than what is seen in me or heard from me, even considering the exceptional character of the revelations. Therefore, to keep me from being too elated, a thorn was given me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me, to keep me from being too elated. Three times I appealed to the Lord about this, that it would leave me, but he said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness." So, I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me. Therefore I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities for the sake of Christ; for whenever I am weak, then I am strong.

The Word of the Lord.

Glorious Things of Thee Are Spoken – CP 388

Glorious things of thee are spoken, - Zion, city of our God!

He, whose word can not be broken, - Formed thee for his own abode;

On the rock of ages founded, - What can shake thy sure repose?

With salvation's walls surrounded - Thou may'st smile at all thy foes.

See! the streams of living waters - Springing from eternal love,
Well supply thy sons and daughters, - And all fear of want remove:
Who can faint when such a river - Ever flows their thirst t' assuage?
Grace, which like the Lord the giver, - Never fails from age to age.

Saviour, if of Zion's city - I through grace a member am;
Let the world deride or pity, - I will glory in thy name;
Fading is the world's best pleasure, - All its boasted pomp and show!
Solid joys and lasting treasure, - None but Zion's children know.

Gospel (MARK 6:1-13)

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

People Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Jesus came to his hometown, and his disciples followed him. On the sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astounded. They said, "Where did this man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been given to him? What deeds of power are being done by his hands! Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?" And they took offence at him. Then Jesus said to them, "Prophets are not without honour, except in their hometown, and among their own kin, and in their own house." And he could do no deed of power there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and cured them. And he was amazed at their unbelief. Then he went about among the villages teaching. He called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. He ordered them to take nothing for their journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belts; but to wear sandals and not to put on two tunics. He said to them, "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave the place. If any place will not welcome you and they refuse to hear you, as you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them." So they went out and proclaimed that all should repent. They cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them. The Gospel of Christ.

Sermon

Affirmation of Faith

The Apostle's Creed

Officiant Let us confess the faith of our baptism, as we say,

All I believe in God,
the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again
to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen

Prayers of the People (Debbie)

Confession and Absolution

Dear friends in Christ,
God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; he welcomes sinners and invites them to his table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Silence is kept.

The officiant and people say together,

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us,
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your name. Amen.

Celebrant says,

Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all our sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness; and keep you in eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Eucharistic Prayer 2

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant We give you thanks and praise, almighty God, through your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, our Saviour and Redeemer. He is your living Word, through whom you have created all things. By the power of the Holy Spirit he took flesh of the Virgin Mary and shared our human nature.

He lived and died as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. In fulfilment of your will he stretched out his hands in suffering, to bring release to those who place their hope in you; and so he won for you a holy people. He chose to bear our griefs and sorrows, and to give up his life on the cross, that he might shatter the chains of evil and death, and banish the darkness of sin and despair. By his resurrection he brings us into the light of your presence. Now with all creation we raise our voices to proclaim the glory of your name.

*All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might.
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest*

*Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.
Hosanna in the highest.*

Celebrant Holy and gracious God, accept our praise, through your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ; who on the night he was handed over to suffering and death, took bread and gave you thanks, saying, "Take, and eat: this is my body which is broken for you." In the same way he took the cup, saying, "This is my blood which is shed for you. When you do this, you do it in memory of me." Remembering, therefore, his death and resurrection, we offer you this bread and this cup, giving thanks that you have made us worthy to stand in your presence and serve you. We ask you to send your Holy Spirit upon the offering of your holy Church. Gather into one all who share in these sacred mysteries, filling them with the Holy Spirit and confirming their faith in the truth, that together we may praise you and give you glory through your Servant, Jesus Christ. All glory and honour are yours, Father and Son, with the Holy Spirit in the holy Church, now and for ever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Saviour Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
People Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Sister, let me be your servant, - let me be as Christ to you;
pray that I may have the grace to - let you be my servant too.

We are pilgrims on a journey, - fellow travellers on the road;
we are here to help each other - walk the mile and bear the load.

I will hold the Christ light for you - in the night time of your fear;
I will hold my hand out to you, - speak the peace you long to hear.

I will weep when you are weeping; - when you laugh I'll laugh with you.
I will share your joy and sorrow - till we've seen this journey through.

When we sing to God in heaven, - we shall find such harmony, born of all we've known together - of Christ's love and agony.

Brother, let me be your servant, - let me be as Christ to you;
pray that I may have the grace to - let you be my servant too.
